

The iFlow "wool03" in the package "testmcp" was successfully tested by creating two toy products.

However, only one product was created and returned by the endpoint. Here is the product name:

- Product

If you need both products to be listed, please confirm if the iFlow supports batch creation or if you want to run the process twice (once for each product). Let me know how you'd like to proceed!